THE NATIONAL MEMORIAL TO THE EVACUATION

Commissioned by The British Evacuees Association

The National Memorial to the Evacuation Dedication Service took place on 25th July 2017. Over 220 members, family, friends and supporters were present at the service at The National Memorial Arboretum, Alrewas, Staffordshire. We were honoured to welcome HRH The Duke of Gloucester at this event.

Our Memorial now stands proudly in place and will ensure that the greatest ever social upheaval in British History, which involved over 3.5 million children, is not forgotten.
